

Diamond USA, a leading manufacturer of Fiber Optic Solutions seeks an Industrial/Mechanical Engineer to expand their technical expertise in the US Market for its corporate office in Billerica, MA.

Industrial/Mechanical Engineer

This position will support manufacturing for new projects, troubleshoot and implement changes that improve quality and product performance, provide training to technicians in the assembly of our devices, and support the sales department in responding to and developing fiber optic solutions for our customers.

Responsibilities:

- Develops, improves, documents and validates Production processes
- Project management
- Designs custom solutions based on client specifications
- Calculates product cost
- Defines/Implements processes into ERP system.
- Test and troubleshoot using high end measurement equipment
- Interfaces with parent company on technology transfers
- Leads and mentors employees

Requirements:

- B.S. in Engineering with 5 years of experience in related field
- Excellent communications and written skills
- Aptitude for precision Mechanics
- Strong ERP knowledge
- Leadership skills
- "Hands On" person with good dexterity
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite and CAD
- United States Citizen or Permanent Resident

Diamond USA, Inc. offers a competitive salary and a comprehensive benefits package including paid Life Insurance and Short Term/Long Term Disability, and matching 401K. If this is the challenge you are looking for send resume with salary requirements to hr@diausa.com.